

Activities of Haver Srbija in 2018.

Falafel-Festival of Israeli LGBTI movies

On the occasion of the International Day against Homophobia, Biphobia and Transphobia Haver Srbija organized Falafel , a two day long, film festival in Belgrade. The festival builds bridges and promotes Israeli, Jewish and LGBTQI culture and communities. Program of the festival consists of the movie screenings, panel discussions, Israeli cuisine, photo exhibition and cultural/social activities. The program actualizes various social issues, in the context of the fight against prejudice, discrimination, anti-Semitism, homophobia and xenophobia and encourages the audience to develop critical thinking on the issue of these topics.

Aims of the event are to: Raise public awareness in Serbia about multilevel discrimination of different minority groups through the promotion of Jewish/Israeli/LGBTQI culture and cinematography; Encourage local Jewish community to be more inclusive; Encourage networking between different minority and marginalized groups in order to work together in confronting and preventing discrimination; Raise the level of knowledge about Jewish and Israeli culture; Promote diversity and create inclusive environments; Encourage activism and promote equality among and for the members of Jewish community, LGBTQI activists and general society.

Festival is organized in partnership between Haver Srbija and the Israeli Embassy in Belgrade, Cultural - educational center KEC, organization that works on the improvement of the human rights of LGBTI members in Serbia; Merlinka film festival and individual activists from Jewish community, LGBTQI community and general society.

Knowledge=tolerance

Project Knowledge=tolerance, has an aim to confront prejudices, stereotypes, discrimination, xenophobia and anti-Semitism among primary and high school students in Serbia. The educational sessions and activities include subjects connected to Jewish life and culture, Holocaust education, anti-Semitism and discrimination designed in the spirit of anti-prejudice and diversity education. During activities, which are using the methodology of informal education, special emphasize is put on the teachings around Holocaust with an aim to learn from this face of history in order to understand dangers of prejudices, discrimination and anti-Semitism. Goals of educational sessions are to facilitate dialogue and sharing of experiences in the area of religion and culture; to recognize, respect and understand religious, cultural, gender and identity diversity; to confront prejudice and discrimination and to develop individual skills for creating inclusive inter-cultural environments. Mission of the project is to encourage and empower school students to actively participate in creating more educated, tolerant, open and responsible society.

During the school year 2018. project activities reached around 6000 participants (students, teachers, volunteers, general public).

Workshops in school. Numerous workshops in schools took place in several cities around Serbia. Three major topics covered during workshops are in connection with Jewish tradition/culture; Discrimination and Anti-Semitism and Shoa. Team of Haver Serbia went to schools and delivered workshops on the topic chosen by teachers. Each workshop lasted one (45min) or two school classes.

Workshops and activities outside of schools

Educational interactive tours around Staro Sajmište (Judenlager Semlin); Jewish cemetery, Synagogue and Jewish district. After the set of workshops around Holocaust, for teachers that choose to take their classes outside of school we organize educational tours around mentioned places. Tours are led by volunteers of the organization and by school students that went through preparation.

Commemoration event is a public event organized on the occasion of the International Holocaust Remembrance Day. The event gathers students, teachers, schools, Jewish community and general public. Content of the event is built together with the teachers and includes testimonies, literature, student made movie specially made for this occasion and choir. Students are involved in educational process during which they learn about local Holocaust history, meet with the survivors, visit a place where concentration camp was in Belgrade and prepare recital for the commemoration event. The event itself includes recital and school choir that sings in Serbian, Hebrew, Yidish and Ladino. More than 60 students took part in the implementation of the event. There were two events of this type in 2018. Both events took place in public spaces.
